Opening Hymn of Praise	CH #2 vs. 1, 2, 4
	Joyful, Joyful We Adore Thee
Sesquicentennial Psalm: Day 36	Mary Louise Gray
	Psalm 38
	O Lord, do not rebuke me in your anger, or discipline me in your wrath. For your arrows have sunk into me, and your hand has come down on me.
	There is no soundness in my flesh because of your indignation; there is no health in my bones because of my sin. For my iniquities have gone over my head; they weigh like a burden too heavy for me.
	My wounds grow foul and fester because of my foolishness; I am utterly bowed down and prostrate; all day long I go around mourning. For my loins are filled with burning, and there is no soundness in my flesh. I am utterly spent and crushed; I groan because of the tumult of my heart.
	O Lord, all my longing is known to you; my sighing is not hidden from you. My heart throbs, my strength fails me; as for the light of my eyes—it also has gone from me. My friends and companions stand aloof from my affliction, and my neighbors stand far off.

Those who seek my life lay their snares; those who seek to hurt me speak of ruin, and meditate treachery all day long.

But I am like the deaf, I do not hear; like the mute, who cannot speak. Truly, I am like one who does not hear, and in whose mouth is no retort.

But it is for you, O Lord, that I wait; it is you, O Lord my God, who will answer. For I pray, ‘Only do not let them rejoice over me, those who boast against me when my foot slips.’

For I am ready to fall, and my pain is ever with me. I confess my iniquity; I am sorry for my sin. Those who are my foes without cause* are mighty, and many are those who hate me wrongfully. Those who render me evil for good are my adversaries because I follow after good.

Do not forsake me, O Lord; O my God, do not be far from me; make haste to help me, O Lord, my salvation.

Common Prayer

Mary Louise Gray

O Holy One, we remember with gratitude those people who generously sowed the seeds of faith in our lives. Above all, we recognize how you have blessed our lives with the gift of the Holy Spirit so that our faith has miraculously and mysteriously grown.

Where we have failed to do the same, where we have failed to involve ourselves in planting any seeds of faith in the lives of others, where we have denied others the opportunity to expand their faith through our lack of interest or involvement, then we confess our preoccupation with self and ask for your forgiveness. And we further ask that you bless and renew our lives, keeping us connected to you at all times and in all places, and strengthening our faith as well as our resolve to be a blessing to others. In Christ's name we pray. Amen.

Hymn of Response

Seed, Scattered and Sown

CH# 395

Seed, scattered and sown, wheat, gathered and grown,
Bread, broken and shared as one, the Living Bread of God.
Vine, fruit of the land, wine, work of our hands,
One cup that is shared by all;
The Living Cup, the Living Bread of God.

Is not the bread we break a sharing in our Lord?
Is not the cup we bless the blood of Christ out poured? (refrain)

The seed which falls on rock will wither and will die.
The seed within good ground will flower and have life. (refrain)

The Lord's Prayer

Rev. Gary Walling

Our Father, who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, On earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, As we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, But deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Acknowledgment

Dear First Christian Church,

Your help in the time of our need was such a great comfort to us. Words can never express how much we appreciate the chicken, beans, potato salad, rolls, deviled eggs and butter pecan cake. They were all so delicious and your kindness will long be remembered.

With love,

The Griffin Family

Sympathy

It is with great sadness that we tell you of the passing of Catherine Cubberley on Saturday, June 5th. At 102, she was the oldest member of First Christian Church. She is survived by her daughter, Judy LeGrand . Our hearts go out to Judy and her family in this time of sorrow.
